OUR JUDGE:
Emily Carter Mitchell

Emily Carter Mitchell is an award winning and published nature and wildlife photographer based in Annapolis, Maryland. As an active member of the Maryland Federation of Art, her work has been included in numerous juried art exhibits, and has previously juried several photography contests. Her work has been exhibited at Gallery 333, The National Wildlife Visitors Center, and Monument Sotheby's International Realty Art Gallery in solo artist shows.

Through her work, Nature as Art, Emily's photography shows a creative interpretation of the natural world with a sense of serenity with profound stillness and ethereal attributes. As a prolific photographer, she enjoys a wide variety of subject matter from abstracts to black and white and uses smart device apps to create images similar to works from the Hudson River Art School. Her photography has been included in local newspapers, magazines, books and smart device apps.

Emily's passion of photography is shared with others through her nature and wildlife photography classes for Capital Photography Center based in the Metro DC area.
