St. Michaels Art League's Art Exhibit in Conjunction with the Waterfowl Festival

Artists are invited to display works that convey the theme, Living on the Eastern Shore" at the St. Michaels Community Center, 103 Railroad Ave., from October 15th - November 16th. This will be a venue for this year's Waterfowl Festival and will be featured in their catalog.

- Any 2D medium, wired to hang, minimum size, 11x 14
- Minimum price $200, 35% commission to Waterfowl
- Drop off at SMCC Thursday 10/15, 10-12PM
- Public cocktail reception, Thursday 11/5 5:30PM
- Ongoing sales handled by the center's staff
- Pick up Monday 11/16 11:30-12:30

Registration and check made out to SMAL mailed by October 7th to Judith Weaver, 28749 Emanuel St., Easton, 21601
$20 for 1 piece, $5 for 2nd piece.

Artist name:
Email and phone:
Mailing address:
Title, medium and price for piece #1

Title, medium and price for piece #2

Volunteers are needed to help with installation 10/15, the reception 11/5 and take down 11/16. Circle one if available.